

SOUTHWESTERN

BAPTIST THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

April 2009

Subject: Recommendation for Christie Jo Johnston

To Whom It May Concern:

Christie Jo Johnston is a former theology student of mine and I've worked with Christie and Pastor Jerry Johnston on a recent evangelism initiative in their church. She possesses all the skill sets, spiritual gifts and ministry experiences that accompany extraordinary leaders. I find her to be a remarkable woman of God on the mission of God who gets the Great Commission and coaches others to get it as well. She is an active, intentional personal evangelist. Her outstanding devotion to the Lord, her husband, her family, her church and her community give her an excellent platform to coach others to grow toward this kind of exceptional life in Christ. I also know Christie to be biblically faithful, theologically sound, a voracious learner, and a great communicator. In sum, Christie has something to say and she knows how to say it. Even more, she cares about people. She cares a lot about people, both lost and saved, and it shows. These are some of the reasons why I highly recommend Christie Jo Johnston.

-cjc

Cky John Carrigan, Ph.D.

Birchman Baptist Church

Associate Professor of Evangelism and Baptist Church Planting

Director of the Scarborough Center for Baptist Church Planting

Director of the Spring Revival Evangelism Program

Roy Fish School of Evangelism and Missions

Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary

ccarrigan@swbts.edu

(817) 923-1921, ext. 6430

ROY FISH SCHOOL OF EVANGELISM AND MISSIONS