

Christie Johnson Recommendation

Bible teacher, mother, parent, pastor's wife, and seminary graduate; A few of the roles Christie Johnson has filled in her life. Kind, wise, compassionate, caring, insightful, and intelligent; Some of the qualities of the person filling these roles. As a professor who has graded her graduate seminary work and someone who has listened to her in public, I wholeheartedly recommend Christie Johnson as an inspirational speaker whose Christian character, grace, and exemplary family life give credence to her ministry. Anyone who meets with Christie Johnson will be impressed with the joy and enthusiasm that accompanies her interesting insights into God's Word. As her professor, I can attest to Christie's ability to think critically and apply her Biblical knowledge to assist others with their spiritual growth.

Dr. Robin Hadaway, Associate Professor of Missions,
Midwestern Baptist Theological Seminary
Kansas City, Missouri